

ASCA Foundation Scholarship

To help future school counselors fulfill their educational goals, the American School Counselor Association Foundation offers the ASCA Foundation Scholarship, sponsored by Anheuser Busch and the ASCA Foundation. The $1,000 scholarships will be awarded to up to 10 students each year who are currently enrolled in a master's-level school counseling program. One of the goals of the scholarship program is to encourage minority students and males to enter the school counseling profession.

Complete applications with supporting documents must be received by Oct. 15. Incomplete applications and those received after the deadline will not be considered. Past ASCA Foundation Scholarship recipients are not eligible. The application packet MUST include the following:

1. Completed scholarship application form (see below)
2. A typewritten essay of no more than two double-spaced pages answering the following question: How do school counselors utilize leadership, advocacy and collaboration to effect systemic change in schools to maximize student success?
3. Proof of current enrollment in a master's-level school counseling program.
4. Two current professional letters (must be addressed to the ASCA Foundation Scholarship: One letter must be from a current academic advisor or professor.)
5. Five copies of the entire application.
