ASCA Announces Newly Elected Board Members

ALEXANDRIA, VA. – Congratulations to the newly elected American School Counselor Association (ASCA) Board of Directors members, who take office Oct. 1, 2026, for a three-year term:

- Monica Bryant, Ed.D., school counselor, John Beatty Elementary School, Las Vegas, Nev.
- Andres Castro, Ed.D., senior program specialist, child welfare and attendance, Los Angeles County Office of Education, Los Angeles, Calif.
- Ebonee Magee-Dorsey, DPC, district school counselor/CTE counselor, Lawrence School District, Monticello, Miss.

ASCA commends its incoming board members and all candidates who sought to contribute to the profession through service on the ASCA Board of Directors. "I am pleased to welcome the new directors and look forward to working with them to further ASCA's vision and mission," said Jill Cook, ASCA executive director.

About the American School Counselor Association

ASCA is a nonprofit, 501(c)(3) professional organization based in Alexandria, Va. ASCA promotes student success by expanding the image and influence of school counseling through leadership, advocacy, collaboration and systemic change. ASCA helps school counselors guide their students toward academic achievement, career planning and social/emotional development to help today's students become tomorrow's productive, contributing members of society. Founded in 1952, ASCA has a network of 53 state and territory associations and a membership of approximately 40,000 school counseling professionals.
